FEDERATED FUNDS NOMINATING COMMITTEE CHARTER

The Nominating Committee (the “Committee”) of each fund which adopts this charter (the “Fund”) shall be composed solely of Directors or Trustees who are not “interested persons” of the Fund as defined in Section 2(a)(19) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “1940 Act”) and who are “independent” as defined in the New York Stock Exchange Listing Standards (individually, an “Independent Trustee” and collectively the “Independent Trustees”). The Board of the Fund shall appoint the members of the Committee and, unless otherwise determined by the Board, the members of the Nominating Committee shall consist of all Independent Trustees. Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, the Chairman of the Independent Trustees shall serve as chair of the Committee.

Meetings. Meetings of the Committee shall be held at such times and places as determined from time to time by the Chair of the Committee, but not less frequently than annually. A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The Committee may meet by telephone and may act by unanimous written consent. The Committee may adopt such rules, procedures or policies as it deems appropriate from time to time to facilitate the conduct of its business.

Responsibilities. The Committee shall select and nominate persons for election to the Board as and when vacancies occur or are reasonably anticipated, which nominees shall be presented to the Board for election, or nomination for election by shareholders, as the case may be. The Committee will consider recommendations from Independent Trustees, officers or employees of any of the Fund’s agents or service providers, counsel to the Fund or shareholders of the Fund. Any person wishing to recommend an individual for consideration should address such request to the Secretary of the Fund and include detailed information concerning the candidate’s qualifications and experience. In identifying and evaluating candidates for consideration, the Committee shall consider such factors as it deems appropriate. These factors ordinarily will include: integrity, intelligence, collegiality, judgment, diversity, skill, business and other experience, qualification as an “Independent Trustee,” the existence of material relationships which may create the appearance of a lack of independence, financial or accounting knowledge and experience, dedication and willingness to devote the time and attention necessary to fulfill Board Responsibilities.

Miscellaneous. The Committee shall have the power, in its discretion, to a) retain and compensate search firms, b) approve the compensation of members of the Committee and c) engage and compensate such other advisers as it deems appropriate.
