6. Escheatment

6a. Lost Shareholder

It is important that you notify the Fund of any changes to your contact information, including both mail and email addresses. If the Fund's communications to you are returned as undeliverable, the Fund will try to reestablish contact with you. If those efforts fail and you are reasonably deemed to be a "lost shareholder," the Fund may elect to suspend account activity, program elections (including, systematic investment, withdrawal or exchange elections) and mailings. In addition, most states require entities like the Fund to turn over assets of lost shareholders following a period of time. Accordingly, the assets in your account may be transferred to the appropriate state if no activity or communication occurs in your account within the time period specified by state law. Once assets are "escheated" to a State, a shareholder will not be able to access their assets through the Fund. To avoid these kinds of problems, we urge you to keep your contact information with the Fund accurate at all times.

6. Escheatment (continued)

6b. Designated Representative

Residents of the state of Texas may opt to designate a representative to receive abandoned or unclaimed property (escheatment) notifications by completing the "Unclaimed Property Designation of Representative" form (the "Form"), which can be found on Texas' Comptroller's website. While the designated representative does not have any rights to claim or access the Shareholder's account or assets, the escheatment period will cease if the representative communicates knowledge of the Shareholder's location and confirms that the Shareholder has not abandoned his or her property. The completed Form must be mailed to the Fund (if your Shares are held directly with the Fund) or to your financial intermediary (if your Shares are not held directly with the Fund). If a Texas Shareholder opts to designate a representative to receive escheatment notifications, any escheatment notices will be delivered both to the Shareholder and the designated representative.

7. Spousal Consent

The following states may require spousal consent to designate a non-spouse beneficiary for married residents to satisfy community/marital property laws: AZ, CA, ID, LA, NM, NV, TX, WA and WI.

It is your responsibility to determine if spousal consent requirements apply to your beneficiary selection. The spousal consent below is provided as an accommodation; the Fund is not responsible for determining its necessity or validity.

I hereby give the owner of this IRA any interest I have in the funds in this account. I consent to the beneficiary designation in Section 8 and assume full responsibility for any adverse consequences that may result. No tax or legal advice was given to me by the Fund.

8. Beneficiary Information

Upon receipt of proper instructions, your IRA assets will be distributed based on the beneficiary designation in this section. If the primary beneficiary does not survive you, your assets will be distributed to the secondary beneficiary, if designated. The percentages must total 100% for each class (primary or secondary). All surviving beneficiaries within each class will share equally if you do not indicate percentages. In the event all beneficiaries are deceased, distribution is made to your estate.

Important Notes:

A primary beneficiary is required; secondary beneficiaries are optional.

To minimize the possibility of future account escheatment to the state, please be sure that you notify your beneficiaries of their designation.

To name a Trust as your beneficiary, enter the name, date, and Tax Identification Number of the Trust.

If the beneficiary is a minor at the time of distribution, a Custodian/Guardian must be named.

You may change your beneficiaries at any time by completing the IRA Beneficiary Form, located at FederatedInvestors.com.

9. Account Service Options

Telephone Exchange automatically applies to your account. When you exchange, you sell shares of one fund to pay for the purchase of shares in another fund. Exchanges are permitted between funds in the same share class provided the registration and Taxpayer Identification Number are identical. Before requesting an exchange, please read the fund's prospectus to ensure all requirements are met.

Telephone Redemption by Check, which allows you to authorize distributions by phone, automatically applies to your account. A check is made payable to the account owner and mailed to the address you provided in Section 1.

Systematic Withdrawal Program (SWP) ($50 minimum per fund) is available for taking IRA distributions. An IRA Request for Distributions Form is required and is available at FederatedInvestors.com or by calling Client Services.

Note: Certain requirements apply for Class B Shares; please see the prospectus for details.
