

Federated Hermes Kaufmann IPO update

Investing in the Kaufmann funds can provide early access to promising growth companies.

U.S. IPO market update

Initial public offerings (IPOs) are part of a healthy movement of capital into new, more productive growth channels. 2021 was the biggest year of U.S. IPO issuance by proceeds in history and the busiest year by deal count since 2000. In sharp contrast, only 64 IPOs have priced year to date as of 9/30/22, only raising $6.6 billion.

Kaufmann IPO participation in 3Q22

Actively selective

- The Federated Hermes Kaufmann team looks for innovative companies that are long-term growth opportunities.
- One way they uncover new ideas is by participating in hundreds of IPO discussions each year.
- Strong ties to the IPO market gives the team an advantageous perspective when it comes to evaluating price and investing in potentially significant opportunities.
- The team's active IPO participation has provided Kaufmann investors early access to promising growth prospects that would be otherwise unavailable to most investors.

The Kaufmann team has participated in very few IPOs this year, as issuance remains quiet. Last year, by contrast, the team participated in 144 IPOs.

As of 9/30/22, none of the Kaufmann funds hold any companies that the team purchased at IPO in 2022. Still, the IPO market continues to be a source of new ideas for the funds.

As of 9/30/22, companies that were first purchased at IPO comprised the following percentage of each Kaufmann fund:

- 43.61% of the Federated Hermes Kaufmann Small Cap Fund
- 20.74% of the Federated Hermes Kaufmann Fund
- 4.87% of the Federated Hermes Kaufmann Large Cap Fund

Investing in IPOs involves special risks such as limited liquidity and increased volatility.

Portfolio holdings are subject to change. Portfolio composition percentages are based on net assets at the close of business on the date indicated and may not necessarily reflect adjustments that are routinely made when presenting net assets for formal financial statement purposes. Because this a managed portfolio, the investment mix will change.

Mutual funds are subject to risks and fluctuate in value.

International investing involves special risks including currency risk, increased volatility, political risks and differences in auditing and other financial standards.

Small company stocks may be less liquid and subject to greater price volatility than large capitalization stocks.
